Dear Parishioners,

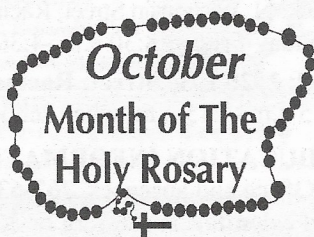

In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus' encounter with a rich man, concludes with Jesus' promise of reward for those who share their material possessions with the needy. Reminding the rich man of the commandments that deal with relationships with other people, Jesus challenged him to sell what he had, and to give the money to the poor. The disciples were shocked by this challenge. But, Jesus declared that true religion consisted in one's sharing one's blessings with others rather than hoarding and/or getting inordinately attached to them.

Initially, Jesus, in generous, sacrificial love, gave us His very self; in response, we find rising in our hearts the desire to give Jesus our own total selves and so to enter the Faith relationship Jesus offers. God does not ask us to give up our riches, but He does ask us to use them wisely in His service not allowing them to gain control over our hearts. God gives us time, talents, health and wealth, and riches, that we may use them as good stewards in the service of others.

Let us accept Jesus' invitation to generous sharing.

Peace and joy,

Fr. Steve

Join an Outdoor Rosary Rally Saturday, October 16, noon-1 p.m. at St. Mary's by the Lake. Please bring a lawn chair and invite your friends and family! Take-home fun bags will be available for all children. Don't have a rosary? We will have one for you.

Catholic Charities U.S.A. is assisting areas damaged by Hurricane Ida and can use your help. Catholic Charities is deploying disaster response experts to provide direct assistance to communities that have recently been damaged by Hurricane Ida. They will also identify long-term recovery needs. For natural disasters that impact U.S. territories, Catholic Charities USA is the official domestic relief agency of the U.S. Catholic Church. Please give generously by going to catholiccharitiesusa.org. Thank you for caring.
