

ST. JOSEPH AND ST. JOHN NEPOMUK CATHOLIC CHURCHES RACINE, WISCONSIN · JULY 22, 2018

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. —Mk 6:30-31b, 32

ST. JOHN NEPOMUK PARISH'S SANCTUARY CANDLE:

As we adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament,
please remember in faith,
FATHER MELVIN MICHALSKI.

Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel passage presents the sympathetic and merciful heart of Jesus who lovingly invites his apostles to a desolate place for some rest. Jesus had sent his apostles on their first mission, which was one of healing, teaching and preaching. When they returned, they were no doubt exhilarated by the experience. They had witnessed first hand, the power of God's Word. Nonetheless, they were hungry, exhausted, and in need of rest, both physical and spiritual.

In fact, Jesus was eager to hear about their missionary adventures as they proudly shared their experiences. But Jesus, too, was in need of a break from the crowds who were constantly pressing on him, demanding his attention and healing. Hence, he led the Apostles by boat to a "deserted place" on the other side of the lake for a period of rest and sharing. Like the apostles, Jesus wants to hear about our own missionary adventures, our own faith journey of sharing God's word and sacraments.

Next weekend is the Mission Appeal Sunday, and so we welcome Brother Raymond Papenfuss from the Brothers of Holy Cross. He will speak to us about their work and ministry. If you would like to donate to their work, you can do so using the Missionary Cooperation Plan envelopes in the pews during the second collection. If donating by check, please make your check payable to St. Joseph or St. John parishes and put "MCP" in the memo line.

Peace and joy,

Fu. Steve
