Dear Parishioners,

A scribe, who believed in both the written Law and the oral tradition, was pleased to see how Jesus defeated the Sadducees who had tried to humiliate Him with the hypothetical case of a woman who had married seven husbands.

He asks Jesus to summarize the most important of the Mosaic Laws in one sentence. Jesus cites the first sentences of the Jewish Shema prayer: "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength" (Deuteronomy 6:4). Then He adds its complementary law: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Leviticus 19:18).

Thus, Jesus says that true religion is loving God and loving our fellow human beings at the same time. That means the only way a person can demonstrate real love of God is by showing genuine, active love for his neighbor. We have to help, support, encourage, forgive, and pray for everyone, without discrimination based on color, race, gender, age wealth or social status.

Peace and joy,

*Fr. SteveSt. John Nepomuk Parish

Concerned about the priest shortage? Your gift to the Catholic Stewardship Appeal helps form future priests who will proclaim Christ and strengthen the faith of many thousands through the sacramental life of the Church and decades of service. There are 56 men in formation at Saint Francis de Sales Seminary. Catholic Stewardship Appeal donation envelopes are on the ushers' tables at the back of church for your use. Thank you for caring.

National Vocations Awareness Week is November 4-10. As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. Today begins National Vocations Awareness Week.

During this week please pray for vocations, and pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply. Encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends to be open if God calls them to the priesthood or religious life. For more information about vocation events or discernment resources, please visit thinkpriest.org, or contact the Vocation Office at vocationoffice@sfs.edu.

Join Archbishop ListECKi in praying for peace and the family on his 8 p.m. daily rosary program on 100.1-FM.

Everyday Stewardship

You can ask many Christians if God is the most important person in their life, and without much thought, they will respond, "Yes." However, just saying it does not make it true. It is the answer that we have been programmed to give, but I am not sure most people reflect too long on what the answer really means. Is God more important to you than all your worldly possessions? Is God more important to you than your spouse or your children?

Oftentimes, we would like to believe that God holds the most important position in our lives, but our actions give us away. We do and say things demonstrating that position of top importance belongs to things, circumstances, or simply ourselves. If we placed God first in our lives, we would be more generous, happier, and more fulfilled. The amazing thing here is that the ultimate self-help action is to turn from our own wants and desires and focus all that energy on God. We actually help ourselves the most by thinking of ourselves the least and turning it all over to someone else. Of course, God knows that. God does not ultimately benefit by anything we give Him. The fruits come to us by putting Him at the top of the list. Then we give Him those fruits to find we have now even more than when we started.

How important is God in your life? Your answer could be the key to life that you have been looking for all along.
