ST. JOHN NEPOMUK PARISH'S SANCTUARY CANDLE:As we adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, please remember in faith, MAE AND ALEX MULESKI.The BREAD AND WINE were donated this week
IN MEMORY OF SYLVESTER AND LUCILLE SOENS by the family.*ST. JOSEPH PARISH'S SANCTUARY LAMP:
As we adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, please remember in faith, GIL MILLER.

Dear Parishioners,

King Herod had married his brother's wife, Herodias, violating the Mosaic Law. John the Baptist showed courage in condemning the king in public and lost his head for it. In today's Gospel, the Pharisees were setting a trap for Jesus, asking whether he agreed with his cousin John on the non-legitimacy of divorce. They were trying to trick him, to see if he would criticize the Mosaic tradition and alienate the people. But Jesus used the occasion to declare unequivocally that the bond of marriage comes from God, not man, and that it is permanent and indissoluble: "What God has joined, man must not separate."

Of course, it is not always easy for the two partners in a marriage to get along with each other because marriage, though one of the most fulfilling of all relationships, is also one of the most demanding. A husband and wife bring to marriage their strengths and weaknesses, loves and hates, hurts and wounds, hopes and fears. Hence, the first requisite for a lasting marriage is that the spouses learn to accept each other as they are: two imperfect and vulnerable human beings.

It requires a lot of mutual adjustments; generosity and good will to forgive and ask for forgiveness; sincere cooperation in training children and raising them as practicing Catholic Christians; and daily strength from God, obtained through personal and family prayers and punctual participation in the parish liturgy. Let us continue to pray for families.

Peace and joy,

*Fr. SteveSt. John Nepomuk Parish
