Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel gives us lessons in Christian tolerance and exemplary Christian living. The apostles wanted to reserve God's love and healing power for themselves as the "sole owners" and "authorized distributors"! We hear John complaining to Jesus that a stranger was driving out demons in Jesus' name, though he was not of their company. They want Jesus to condemn the man.

Jesus, however, reprimands his disciples for their jealousy and suspicion and invites them to broaden their vision and to recognize God's power wherever it is found. Like Moses in the first reading, Jesus challenges a rigid understanding of ministerial legitimacy. He wants the apostles to rejoice in the good that others are doing, for God is the Doer of all good. Jesus enunciates a principle for his disciples: "Anyone who is not against us is for us." God can and does use anyone to do His work. Let us try our best to do good for others. At the same time, let us rejoice in the good others are doing and remember the warnings against jealousy and intolerance.

I am glad to announce that Edward Sosa of St. John Nepomuk Parish has been accepted into the propaedeutic phase of diaconal formation—Aspirancy. Let us congratulate Ed and Julie Sosa and continue to pray and support them in this journey towards the diaconate.

Peace and joy,

*Fr. SteveSt. John Nepomuk Parish
