Transformed by the Spirit… the imprisoned find hope

"'When the door closes behind us, God is still with us,' says Clara Fernandez. For five years, Clara has led Spanish-language [Bible study] at the Racine Correctional Institution. Your gift to the Appeal enables the archdiocese to train volunteers like Clara, bringing hope through God's Word—4,000 inmates served in 8 prisons across the archdiocese."

Many Hands. One Vision.
Catholic Stewardship Appeal
Archdiocese of Milwaukee

Dear Parishioners,

The Gospel passage reminds us that the Holy Spirit, abiding within us, is our teacher and the source of all peace. The passage offers a vision of hope. Jesus promises his followers that the Holy Spirit will come and instruct them in everything they need to know. Let us be aware of the abiding presence of God within us that we are never alone.

Today we rejoice with our second graders as they receive the Eucharistic Jesus first time in their life. It is certainly a memorable day for them as well the parents. They are happy and all smiles today and their parents. While congratulating them, let us continue to encourage them through our good examples and prayers.

Last week we had the first PowerPoint presentation about the Order of Mass, and we dealt with a few basic questions and answers about the Holy Eucharist. This week, too, as part of the introduction, we will continue with the general questions. In later weeks, we will go into the different parts of the Mass. Since I alternate Masses between St. Joseph and St. John, it is hard to have continuity in the presentation. If a visiting priest is willing to do the same presentation, we will have it for all Masses at both churches. Otherwise, it will only be at the church where I celebrate the Mass. However, I always do the 10:30 a.m. Mass, and the teaching will continue there.

On May 2-4, I will be away attending the Spring Assembly of Priests with Archbishop Listecki and all the diocesan priests. There will be no morning Mass on these days.

Peace and joy,
Fr. Steve

Magnificat Welcomes Guest Speaker Kahhy Uhl

"We must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found. Luke 15:32

Come hear Kathy Uhl's spiritual journey of how she had fallen away from the Church and through God's mercy and forgiveness she returned. One of Kathy's favorite quotes: "O God of second chances and new beginnings, hear I come again" is how she reflects back and to never give up. Kathy experienced many miracles throughout her journey, including the miracle between her special needs son, born on Good Friday at 2:59pm, and one of her daughters. Through God's unselfish love and her learning to fully trust in the Lord she returned and never looked back.

Kathy has actively participated in many Catholic retreats with the most significant being a Life in the Spirit seminar where she received the gifts from the Holy Spirit. In addition she actively participates in an intercessory prayer group.

Kathy and her husband Bill have been married for 53 years and have lived in Kenosha since 2000. They have 4 children and 9 grandchildren. Kathy is the historian for our Magnificat Kenosha/Racine Chapter. She volunteers at St Anne's church in Pleasant Prairie and is the teacher's aide in the Faith Formation kindergarten class. Also her husband and her are involved daily with their grandchildren.

Don't miss Kathy's beautiful and uplifting testimony. Mark your calendar for May 14th.

Magnificat®

A Ministry to Catholic Women

"My soul magnifies the Lord, my spirit finds joy in God my Savior… God who is mighty has done great things for me, holy is His name."
Luke 1:46-49

In these words of the Magnificat, Mary proclaimed to Elizabeth her gratitude for the wonderful action of God in her life. Please join us at a breakfast for Catholic women where we will share together in that same spirit of gratitude and praise of God. After a meal, there will be a time of prayer for the needs of all present and an opportunity to hear of the transforming love of Christ.

Please plan to come and bring a friend to rejoice in the presence of the Lord.

"Glorify the Lord with me. Let us together extol His name."
Psalm 34: 4
