Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the foolish rich man, warning us against all types of greed because greed takes our life's focus away from God and away from serving and loving Him in other people. Jesus says God calls the greedy rich man a fool because the man thought he would not die soon and that he was not accountable for the way he used his riches.

The rich man forgot that his wealth had been lent to him by God for sharing with the needy. Jesus also warns us that our eternal life does not consist of earthly possessions (Lk 12:15), which we should share to gain eternal life. This parable is a warning as well as an invitation. It reminds us that we are accountable to God for the use of our possessions. We must be generous in sharing our time, our treasure, and our talents in Christian stewardship.

We might ask what if we are poor financially? Then, we may be blessed with intelligence, good will, and a sense of humor or the ability to console, encourage, inspire and support others. God expects us to give Him thanks for all these blessings by sharing them with others for His glory. The Old Testament Scriptures are clear about tithing—giving 10% of our income for God's cause and for helping the needy. God never allows those who tithe to regret their generosity.

Peace and joy,

Fr. Steve

Everyday Stewardship

Sometimes, we think material possessions give evidence of a life lived well. Not only doesn't all our stuff amount to real evidence of what our life has really been like, but it doesn't make our lives better either.

What makes a life well lived will be the love and compassion that we have experienced, primarily with God who loves us so deeply. Due to that love, God gives to us what we need, not always what we want. More stuff will never amount to anything in comparison to what God provides to us. If we reflected on that truth more, perhaps we would spend less time accumulating things and more time simply loving.

On the day my son moved to college, I wanted to give my son more material things than was possible. However, what he really needs then, now, and always is my love.
