THE HERDT AND HECKMAN FAMILIES.

Dear Parishioners,

While all the synoptic Gospels mention a mission of the Twelve, only Luke adds a second mission of the 72. Just as Moses selected the seventy-two elders to guide and govern his people, so Luke presents Jesus as the "new Moses" in today's Gospel. Jesus sends out his seventy-two disciples to towns and villages to announce his visit, thus giving a symbolic meaning to the number seventy-two. The Jews also believed that there were seventy-two nations in the whole world, and they had seventy-two members in the Sanhedrin, the supreme council of the Jews.

Jesus gives them "travel tips" for their missionary journey. They must be walking witnesses of God's providence by relying on the hospitality of others, living very simple lives, preaching the Good News and healing the sick. Today's Gospel reminds us that the 1.5 billion Christians in the world today have the same mission to preach the Gospel of Christ to the other 4.5 billion non-Christians.

As faithful Christians, let us try to attract others to the Faith by leading exemplary lives, just as a rose attracts people by its beauty and fragrance. This is our job and our responsibility. We must not miss the current opportunities to be apostles through our words and deeds in everyday life.

Happy July 4th weekend,Fr. Steve

Everyday Stewardship

If you had $100 to give away, to whom would you give it? What if I told you that one of the individuals just got a big raise at work, and the other person is at risk of having their water turned off because they have been late paying their bill. Does it make a difference now?

Discernment should always be an important part of any good steward's way of life. If we give simply for the sake of giving, that may not always be the best use of our gifts. In order to gain the most fruit from the seeds we plant, we must plant wisely. All we have been given has value, and we need to be good caretakers of it all. If you ever do find yourself with $100 to spare, be sure to carefully consider all the options and make the wiser choice. In the meantime, pray for wisdom and reflect on how to best use all you have been given for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

Prayer for Growth

Maker of all that is, at the very dawn of creation your Spirit hovered over the waters and brought order out of chaos.

Your word brought forth vegetation: every kind of plant that bears seed and every kind of fruit tree on the earth.

And you saw how good it was on that third day.

Now, Lord, as we plant in your good earth make the seeds we sow fruitful.

Let them sprout and grow strong, nourished by the sun and rain. May the flowers bloom brightly and abundantly to bring cheer to those who are bowed down.

May food spring forth from what we plant, so that as we eat the produce of the earth we may rejoice in your gracious blessings. Amen.
