ST. JOHN NEPOMUK PARISH'S SANCTUARY CANDLE:

As we adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, please remember in faith, JERRY SIMANEK AND
THE SIMANEK FAMILY.

Are you considering serving the Church as an ordained Deacon? The Church calls men to be deacons "in service" to the People of God. If you are a man (married or single), who feels this call and wants to know more, please contact the Office for Diaconate Formation at 414-758-2207 or maldonadom@archmil.org or talk to Deacon Doug Gundlach. See archmil.org/offices/Diaconate.htm and click on the Inquiry for Discernment Program for a schedule.

Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel tells the post-Resurrection story of our merciful Savior who goes in search of His band of disappointed and dejected disciples. The incident proves that Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances were not mere hallucinations. The second part is a dialogue between Jesus and Simon, where Simon is asked three times whether he loves Jesus, and he answers that he does, as if in reparation for his triple denial of Jesus.

By this triple confession, Peter is restored to the leadership position. Furthermore, it is proclaimed that Peter is indeed a pastor, who is to show his love for Christ in feeding Christ's sheep, a recycling of denial into affirmation. Peter's rehabilitation is a celebration of Divine Grace. As the shepherd appointed by the True Shepherd, to do as He did, to care for the sheep, Peter also symbolizes leadership. The Risen Jesus accepts our apology, dismisses the charges against us, exonerates us of guilt, and forgives all our weaknesses. He continues to challenge us to demonstrate our love for him by faithfully, freely, feeding his sheep entrusted to our care.

Let us congratulate all our First Communicants as they receive Jesus for the first time, and let us walk with them in this journey through our very life.

Peace and joy,

Fr. Steve

Everyday Stewardship

I am struck by how Jesus addresses the disciples in the 21st chapter of John. The stewardship way of life demands of us a certain maturity of discipleship. Just as a child is not yet ready to be a parent, an immature disciple may not yet be ready to sacrifice regardless of the cost or understand the true value of his generosity. So every day, we are challenged and called to respond, sometimes even with little cost to ourselves. But each step, no matter how small, brings with it growth. We are growing not only in maturity, but in the ability to trust in God and how to listen for the call as well.

How mature are you in your faith? How much trust do you have in Jesus Christ? How often do you pause to listen to the instructions of your Teacher? The night is now over, and the dawn is upon you. Reflect on the visible fruit of your stewardship, and then listen for the words of Jesus.
