

ST. JOSEPH AND ST. JOHN NEPOMUK CATHOLIC CHURCHES

RACINE, WISCONSIN · SEPTEMBER 29, 2019

Jesus is happy to come with us, as truth is
happy to be spoken,
as life to be lived,
as light to be lit,
as love is to be loved,
as joy to be given,
as peace to be spread.

—St. Francis of Assisi

LAMP: As we adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, please remember in faith, RUSSELL WALLACE.

Dear Parishioners,

In today's gospel, Jesus gives us a warning, pointing to the destiny of the rich man who neglected his duty to show mercy to poor Lazarus. The rich man was punished, not for having riches, but for neglecting the Scriptures and what they taught on sharing his blessings with the poor.

God has blessed each one of us with wealth or health or special talents or social power or political influence or a combination of many blessings. The parable invites us to share what we have been given with others in various ways instead of using everything exclusively for selfish gains. We are all rich enough to share our blessings with others.

Peace and joy,

*Fr. Steve† STEWARDSHIP Whatever you have – has been given.
