DEAR PARISHIONERS

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, and it reminds us of the abiding presence of our loving God with us. Today's Gospel details how Jesus converted this ancient ritual into a sacrament and a sacrifice. Instead of the lamb's blood, Jesus offered his own Divine/human Body and Blood, and instead of sprinkling us with blood, Jesus put it into our hands as food and drink: "Take ... eat .... This IS my Body which will be given up for you," (He did not say, "This represents my body.") and "Take ... drink .... This IS my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal Covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many...." (He did not say, "This represents my blood.")

Jesus instituted the Holy Eucharist both as a sacramental banquet and a sacrificial offering. As a sacrament, the Eucharist is a visible sign that gives us God's grace and God's life and, as a communal Meal, the Eucharist unites us and nourishes our souls. As a sacrifice, the Eucharistic celebration is a re-enactment of Jesus' sacrifice on Calvary, completed in His Resurrection. As Church, we offer Jesus' sacrifice to God the Father for the remission of our sins, using signs and symbols.

On this Solemnity, let us appreciate the "Real Presence of Jesus" in the Holy Eucharist by receiving him with true repentance for our sins, due preparation, and deep reverence. We become Christbearers, as Mary was, with the duty of conveying Christ to others at home and in the workplace through love, mercy, forgiveness, and humble and sacrificial service.

At today's Corpus Christi Masses, we will be returning to the Cup of the Precious Blood. One cup will be available at Mass for those who wish to receive the Holy Eucharist under both forms. Corpus Christi Sunday begins the Year of Eucharistic Revival.

Peace and joy,

Father Steve
