ST. LEO THE GREAT PARISH UPDATE

As promised, I will be giving weekly updates on questions you may have about our future. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to let me know. Today, I am sharing about the vision for the Human Concerns Commission for Saint Leo the Great. After meeting with representatives of the Human Concerns Commission, we have begun a renewed planning process for Saint Leo the Great. Below is the commission's working vision, offered as an invitation to pray, discern, and serve.

What is the purpose of the Human Concerns Commission? To discern and respond to human needs in our parish, our local community, and the wider world by identifying resources and inviting parishioners into concrete works of mercy and justice; What does the commission do in practice? Working with the pastor, staff, and partner organizations, the commission coordinates service, advocacy, Catholic social teaching, and practical support so that no need is overlooked and no ministry stands alone; What kinds of needs are we trying to meet? Examples include food insecurity, accompaniment for families in crisis, support for mothers and children, and opportunities to serve neighbors with dignity through reliable programs and partnerships; How will we know we are making progress? We will look for clear signs of growth such as more parishioners serving, stronger coordination across ministries, and consistent support reaching those who need it most; What ministries or committees may be part of this work? Examples include Pro-Life, Meal Program, Food Pantry, and Catholic Social Teaching (with additional committees formed as needs and leaders emerge); and Next steps: Please pray about where you may be called to serve, and if you are interested in joining or learning more about any Human Concerns ministry, please let me know.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho

GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, often called Good Shepherd Sunday, we hear Jesus describe Himself with a striking image: "I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved." This Sunday is a wonderful moment for us to say a prayer for our priests. I know our reality is changing here in Racine, with some of our priests leaving and new ones coming. Please pray for our priests and ask the Lord on this Sunday to mold their hearts to his Heart.

The Gospel often uses images from our everyday lives to convey a powerful message. A gate is not simply a boundary; it is a point of access to a different reality. For us, Jesus as the Gate becomes the threshold between where we are and where God desires to be. Jesus does not merely show us the way, he is the Way. In the first reading, we hear Peter preaching, filled with the Holy Spirit, boldly proclaiming to the people and their leaders that salvation comes only through Jesus Christ. This proclamation fires something in the hearts of his listeners. The people were "cut to the heart" and asked, "What are we to do?" Encountering Jesus always provokes a response. Once we realize who he is, remaining passive is no longer an option. He is the Gate, and we are compelled to step into his Grace and Reality.

Jesus stands before us as the Gate, open, inviting, and life-giving; but a gate must be entered. Faith in Christ is not just agreement with an idea, as I mentioned last Sunday in my homily; it is a decision to step through, to enter into a relationship with the Lord, to allow our lives to be reordered around him. I pray that we, like the crowds before Peter, may sense the desire to "do more," to live our faith more intentionally. That's the invitation that the Lord makes to us this weekend.

I invite you this week to consider what it would mean for you to enter through the Gate that the Lord has opened in front of you. It may mean recommitting to prayer, especially listening to the voice of the Lord guiding our choices. It may mean deeper participation in the sacraments, where Christ's saving Grace becomes tangible in our lives. It may mean courageously witnessing to our faith, at home, at work, or in acts of charity, just as Peter did, even when it feels uncomfortable.

This Easter season reminds us that the risen Jesus has opened the Gate to abundant life. The question before us is simple and challenging: Will we step through? And once we do, how will we help others recognize where true life is found? Like the first Christians, may our encounter with Christ move us from belief into action, from desire into joyful discipleship.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"The sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice," Jesus says. Do we know the voice of Jesus when he speaks to us? Have we spent time in conversation with him? This week, listen for the voice of Jesus in your life, and follow where it leads.

Observances for the week of April 26, 2026

Virtues, Explained!

True humility does not require us to ignore, underestimate, or hide our gifts — it merely demands that we use these gifts rightly, with the knowledge that they are from our Creator and meant for His glory, not our own.

Blessing of the Good Shepherd

Dear Jesus,
Be the Good Shepherd in my life.
Help me to know your voice and to respond.
Help me to find your fold and the paths on which you lead.
Bless me with verdant pastures and restful waters.
Refresh my soul.
Amen.
