GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

The core of the readings for this weekend are humility and generosity without expectation. This is a challenging practice. Most of us, when we do act, expect something in return. The selfless love of giving without expectation is something that reflects the very heart of God. These two virtues are a work in progress for all of us.

In the First Reading, we hear: "My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts... Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God." Humility is not weakness; it is strength rooted in truth. It reminds us that everything we have is a gift from God. Pride isolates us, but humility opens our hearts to grace and to others. This week, take some time to work on this virtue. Take a look at some of the dimensions of your life that are prideful. We all have those. In the sanctity of your prayers and life, reflect on that and ask the Lord to give you the Grace to overcome that pride with humility.

The Gospel echoes this call. Jesus warns against seeking places of honor and teaches: "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he gives us a radical challenge: "When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." This is the essence of Christian love, doing good without expecting anything in return. In a world that often asks, "What's in it for me?", Jesus calls us to a love that mirrors his own. This love is generous, inclusive, and free from self-interest. This virtue is hard to work on. The Lord teaches us that the best act of kindness is the one that cannot be repaid. I invite you this week to do something for someone you know who would never be able to pay you back. This week, reach out to someone who cannot repay you, a lonely neighbor, a struggling family, or someone in need of encouragement.

We are back to school and to our faith formation programs. If you have children and haven't signed them up for Faith Formation, please contact your parish's office to ensure we have them enrolled in our program.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"When you hold a banquet, invite the poor," Jesus instructs. "Blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." Each of us has our own banquet to offer, our own gifts to share. Who will we invite?

Observances for the week of August 31, 2025

- Sunday: 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: Labor Day
Wednesday: St. Gregory the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church
Next Sunday: 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time;
Grandparents' Day

Devotions, Explained!

Imago divina (Latin for "divine image") is an extension of the ancient practice of lectio divina (literally, "divine lesson"). Imago divina is, in a sense, praying with one's eyes, using the medium of artwork to assist in lifting the mind to God.

Prayer for Humility

Dear God,
Mold my heart after Yours.
Help me to see myself as You see me: surrounded by Your love. Help me to see others as You see them as well. Give me knowledge of your ways, today and always.
Amen.
