Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat on the feast day of St. Blaise (Feb. 3), who was a bishop and martyr of fourth-century Armenia. During the blessing, a cross is formed from two blessed candles that are held over the throat.

Prayer for Baptism

Oh God,
You desire each of us to be a part of Your sacred family, called and invited into relationship with You. May the grace of our Baptisms beloved and chosen by You.

Amen.

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

JANUARY 12, 2025 | 05

GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord marks the end of the Christmas season and the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In the Gospel of Luke, we listen to the narrative of Jesus' baptism and the profound moment in the manifestation of God's love for Jesus and humanity. This event is of profound significance to our understanding of discipleship. John the Baptist prepares the way for Jesus, emphasizing the greatness of the One who is to come. When Jesus is baptized, the heavens open, and the Holy Spirit descends upon him in the form of a dove. A voice from heaven proclaims, "You are my beloved Son; with you, I am well pleased." This divine affirmation reveals Jesus' identity as the beloved Son of God and marks the beginning of his mission to bring salvation to humanity. It is a moment of profound revelation and a reminder of God's immense love for his Son and all of humanity.

The Baptism of Jesus invites us to reflect on our baptism and the call to discipleship that it entails. Through baptism, we are united with Christ, cleansed from sin, and initiated into the Christian community. It is a sacrament that marks the beginning of our lifelong journey as disciples of Christ. This feast is a good opportunity for us to reflect on our baptism. It is an invitation to embrace our own identity in Christ. Just as Jesus was affirmed as God's beloved Son, we, too, are beloved children of God. Our Christian identity is rooted in this divine love, and we are called to live out this identity daily. In baptism, we begin our journey to a life of holiness, where we strive to reflect Christ's love and compassion in all we do. It is an invitation to grow in virtue, seek reconciliation, and deepen our relationship with Christ. Like John the Baptist, we are called to be witnesses to Christ and proclaim the Good News of salvation. Our words and actions should reflect the joy and hope of knowing and following Jesus. Discipleship involves recognizing the needs of others and responding with love and compassion. We are called to serve our neighbors, especially those who are marginalized and in need, as a way of living out our baptismal commitment. The descent of the Holy Spirit upon Jesus at his baptism reminds us of the importance of being open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit in our lives. The Holy Spirit empowers us to live our discipleship with courage and conviction.

We can live our baptism this month by participating in Our Journey to Heaven. We have two events this month: an Engage event on January 18 at Saint Edward (Bingo Bash Night) and a Learn event to dive deep into Luke's writings (Gospel and Acts) on January 24/25 at Sacred Heart. You are all invited to come and meet fellow members of our Catholic Family here in Racine. These two events are an excellent opportunity to build community, get to know each other, and internalize the teachings of the Lord that we find in the Gospel.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho
