Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover. (Jos 5:10)

Psalm:

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 34)

Second Reading:

And all this is from God,
who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation. (2 Cor 5:18)

Gospel:

"But now we must celebrate and rejoice,
because your brother was dead and has come to life again;
he was lost and has been found." (Lk 15:32)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The Prodigal Son doesn't dare ask for the honor of being called his Father's son again. All he wants is to be close to his Father, to be cared for. But his Father surprises him with his mercy, as God surprises us. He offers more than just forgiveness. He offers redemption.

Observances for the week of March 30, 2025

- Sunday: 4th Sunday of Lent
Tuesday: April Fools' Day
Wednesday: St. Francis of Paola, Hermit
Friday: St. Isidore, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
Saturday: St. Vincent Ferrer, Priest
Next Sunday: 5th Sunday of Lent

Devotions, Explained!

A novena is a nine-day period of prayer focused on a specific topic, saint, or devotion. There are four basic categories of novenas — novenas of preparation, of mourning, of prayer, and of indulgence. This 9-day period of prayer can be traced back to the Acts of the Apostles.

Prayer of a Father's Blessing

God who wills good things for your children, Help me to trust that You will be faithful.
God who will not leave me,
Help me to seek You, too.
God who is ever-waiting for me, Help me to run straight towards You.

Amen.

GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

As we journey through Lent, the Fourth Sunday offers us a moment to pause and reflect on the gift of renewal that forgiveness brings. We have officially begun spring, and our hope is for better weather. The brightness of spring is about to burst. Just as spring rejuvenates the earth with new life, forgiveness heals and restores our souls, allowing us to grow closer to God and one another.

The Gospel's parable of the prodigal son reminds us of God's boundless mercy and love for us. The father goes beyond the son's expectations, brings him back with joy, and celebrates the restoration of their relationship. This boundless mercy calls us to practice forgiveness in our lives. Forgiveness is not a mere gesture but a transformative act. Forgiveness is not about excusing wrongs or forgetting hurt but about releasing the burdens that hold us captive. It is the act of unbinding our hearts, choosing grace over resentment, and opening ourselves to the fullness of renewal. That's what the father experiences in the parable: a new opportunity to share his joy and life with his lost son.

When we forgive, we imitate Christ's ultimate act of love on the cross. His sacrifice redeems us and invites us to extend that same compassion to others. By forgiving, we create space for reconciliation, peace, and new beginnings within ourselves and our relationships. The father in the parable brings about a new beginning in his relationship with his younger son. The older brother lets resentment and entitlement obscure his heart. We do not know if he came into the party or if he missed out on it. But that's the point of the parable; one must decide on the next step. The older brother needs to decide to partake of the joy that comes from forgiveness or continue to carry the burden that holds him captive: entitlement and resentment.

As we approach Easter, let us reflect on where forgiveness is needed in our lives. Who do we need to forgive, perhaps a friend, a family member, or even ourselves? Where can we offer mercy? By practicing forgiveness, we align our hearts with God's, and in doing so, we experience the joy of renewal that Lent calls us toward.

In essence, making forgiveness a daily habit involves consistently choosing understanding over bitterness, active reflection over dwelling on past hurts, and compassion over judgment. These practices lighten our emotional load and open new spaces for personal growth and renewed relationships.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho
