GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, the readings for the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time invite us to reflect on what truly endures. The readings help us to reflect on the end of times. What will really endure in life? In his letter to the Thessalonians, Paul offers a powerful theme: imitation. He writes not as one seeking honor or prestige, but as a model of faith lived in simplicity and perseverance. Paul reminds his community that Christian life is not about grand displays but about embodying the Gospel in daily actions. His words challenge us: Who are we imitating? Our culture often elevates wealth, status, and external success, yet Paul points us toward Christ-like humility and service.

In the Christian sense, imitation is not merely a matter of copying; it is a transformative process. Paul himself imitates Christ, and by doing so, becomes a living example for others. This chain of imitation, from Christ to Paul, and from Paul to the community, reveals that faith is both relational and incarnational. We learn to follow Christ by observing and walking with those who live authentically in him. Paul, in his letters, encourages the communities to imitate him as he imitates Christ. He wants to be the model of discipleship for the community.

The Gospel complements this message by shifting our gaze from what amazes the eye to what grounds the soul. Jesus warns against being impressed by magnificent buildings and external splendor. These things, he says, will pass away. The proper foundation of our faith is not stone or ornamentation but Christ himself, the living cornerstone. When we build our lives on him, we construct something eternal, beautiful beyond measure, and immune to decay. The true beauty of our faith is that we have a living God in our Lord Jesus Christ. That's beautiful. Take a moment to reflect on this profound reality: God loved us so much that he became one of us. That is more beautiful than all the cathedrals and ornaments of the world.

This is a timely reminder for us today. Churches and cathedrals, though inspiring, are not the essence of Christianity. Our faith does not rest on marble altars or golden vessels but on the person of Jesus Christ, crucified and risen. He is the solid rock that sustains us when trials come, when the world trembles, and when all else fades. Jesus, looking at the temple in Jerusalem, invites his disciples to focus on the splendor of his presence in their midst rather than on buildings and vessels. An excessive concern for external beauty can obscure the true beauty that resides within our Lord.

As disciples, we are called to imitate Christ through concrete acts of love, mercy, and justice. Let us not be seduced by pomp or appearances but strive to become living temples where God dwells. In doing so, we echo Paul's invitation: to be models of faith for others, rooted in Christ, the true and lasting beauty of our lives.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

But for you who fear my name, there will arise
the sun of justice with its healing rays. (Mal 3:20)

Psalm:

The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice. (Ps 98)

Second Reading:

Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you,
so that you might imitate us. (2 Thes 3:9)

Gospel:

"You will be hated by all because of my name,
but not a hair on your head will be destroyed.
By your perseverance you will secure your lives." (Lk 21:17-19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus' words today are filled with fire
and brimstone, vivid with images of pain, suffering, confusion — and, ultimately,
peace. Do we believe what he promises?
Do we have the endurance to stay with him until the end?

Observances for the week of November 16, 2025

- Sunday: 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: St. Elizabeth of Hungary, Religious Tuesday: The Dedication of the Basilicas of Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles; St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, Virgin
Friday: The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Saturday: St. Cecilia, Virgin and Martyr
Next Sunday: Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Devotions, Explained!

An Advent Wreath consists of a circle of evergreen and four candles, one for each week of Advent. Three of the candles are purple; one is rose, representing Gaudete Sunday, a time of rejoicing at the closeness of Christmas.

Prayer in Season of Trust

O Lord,
Be with me now, I feel so alone.
Bring Your blessings to me, like the light of a candle in darkness.
Wrap me in Your mercy,
give me strength to face every hardship.
Amen.

17TH ANNUAL SENTIMENTS FOR SEMINARIANS PROGRAM

As a simple way to support priestly and religious vocations, besides prayer or financial support, we can all help seminarians and religious novices by donating to the 17th annual Knights of Columbus' Sentiments for Seminarians Program. Since they don't get paid and have no jobs or vacations, it is often hard for them to obtain many simple, needed items and to travel where and when needed.

In the Catholic Community of Eight in Racine, we are seeking donations of gas cards and/or pre-paid gift cards like Master Card, Visa, department store, pharmacy, and restaurant cards. It would be best if these were national chains, rather than local-area brands. You can also donate cash or a check in an envelope marked Sentiments for Seminarians, and we'll purchase the card(s) for you. Please make checks out to KC Council 697 and write Sentiments for Seminarians on the memo line. You can place the donated cards, cash, or check in an envelope marked Sentiments for Seminarians and put it in the collection basket or drop it off at your parish office. You can also mail checks directly to Knights of Columbus Council 697; P.O. Box 081453; Racine, WI 53408-1453. They are due to us by November 30.

What a great way it would be to say Happy Thanksgiving or Merry Christmas to a seminarian here in Wisconsin, by donating one or two of these items during the month of November. Knights will collect the donated gift cards and deliver them to Archbishop Grob for distribution here in the Milwaukee Archdiocese.

We thank you in advance for all your kind generosity. For more information, please contact Bill Frayer at 262-633-7887, 262-945-1095, or frayerfamily@yahoo.com.
