GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

This Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, the final Sunday of the liturgical year. We come to the end of this liturgical year in joy, knowing that we have made some growth in our journey as disciples. And now we prepare to begin the season of Advent, another liturgical year and opportunity to grow as missionary disciples of Christ.

At first glance, the title “King” in the Solemnity we celebrate this weekend might evoke images of power, wealth, and domination, just like earthly kingdoms that often exclude, divide, and protect privilege. But the Gospel reveals a very different kind of kingship: one rooted in compassion and mercy. The Kingdom of God is driven by Love, unlike earthly kingdoms that are driven by power and ambition.

The Gospel of Luke presents a powerful image of Christ’s kingship. Jesus reigns from a cross, not a throne. His crown is of thorns, not gold. Around him are not courtiers but criminals. In this scene, we encounter two thieves crucified alongside him. One mocks, demanding power and escape. The other, in humility, turns to Jesus with a simple plea: “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” And Jesus responds with astonishing mercy: “Today you will be with me in Paradise.” This moment unveils the heart of Christ’s Kingdom. It is not a realm of exclusion or privilege, but a kingdom that welcomes the repentant, heals the broken, and embraces the outcast. Unlike earthly nations that draw borders and build walls, the Kingdom of God gathers people together — saints and sinners alike — under the banner of grace. It is a kingdom where forgiveness triumphs over judgment and love conquers hatred.

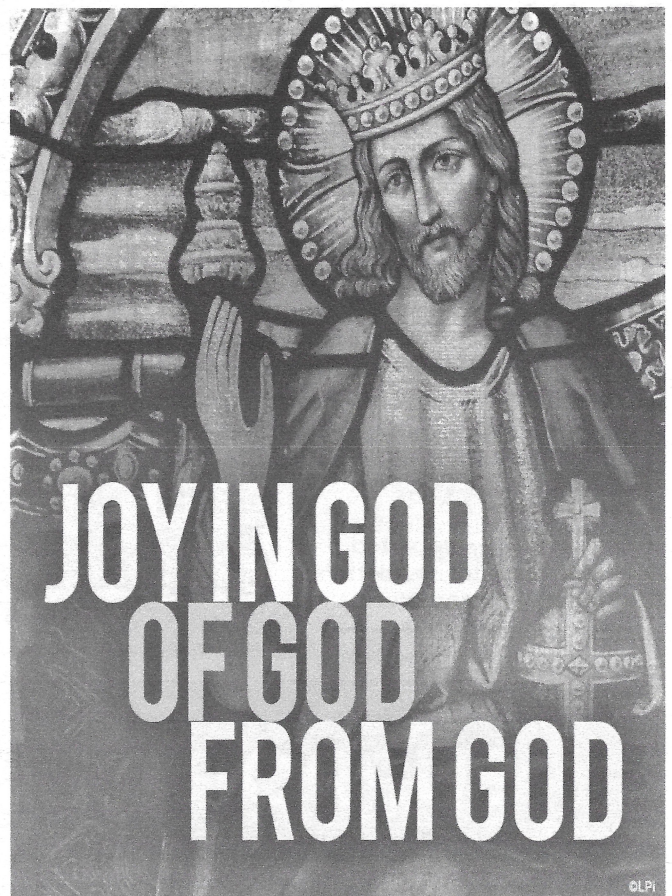

The “good thief” reminds us that entry into this kingdom is not earned by status or achievement, but by trust in Jesus. His simple act of faith opens the gates of Paradise. This is the hope offered to all of us: no matter our failures, Christ’s mercy is greater. His kingship is not about domination but service, not about fear but freedom, not about exclusion but embrace. This weekend, feel the embrace of Christ in your life and liberate your heart from fear and anxiety, for the Lord wants you to be with him in Paradise.

As we conclude the liturgical year, this Solemnity invites us to examine our own hearts. Do we live as citizens of this kingdom of mercy? Do our words and actions reflect Christ’s compassion? In a world fractured by division and rivalry, we are called to be signs of unity and peace, ambassadors of a King who reigns through love. As ambassadors of Christ that we are, let us do this week one action that reflects Jesus’ love, compassion, and mercy in this world.

Let us proclaim with joy: Christ is our King! But let us also remember what kind of King he is, the one who forgives from the cross, who welcomes the sinner, who binds up the wounded. His kingdom is already among us whenever we choose mercy over judgment, compassion over indifference, and reconciliation over division. May this solemnity renew our commitment to live under Christ’s gentle rule, and to extend his mercy to all. For in his kingdom, no one is forgotten, and everyone is invited to share in the life of grace.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Our king wears a crown of thorns, not a crown of gold. His glory is not in riches but in suffering. His law is written in his own blood, shed for the love of us. Do we understand the gift that it is, to be subject to such a king?

Observances for the week of November 23, 2025

- Sunday: Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Monday: St. Andrew Dung-Lac, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs
Tuesday: St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin and Martyr
Thursday: Thanksgiving Day
Next Sunday: 1st Sunday of Advent

Devotions, Explained!

The Jesse Tree is an Advent practice which recounts the history of salvation by tracing the lineage of Christ — the foretold "shoot from the stump of Jesse" who will bring peace and unity to the people of God (Isaiah 11:1).

Jesus is King

Dear Jesus,
I see the kingdom you love,
the one full of the broken and forgotten.
I see the crown you wear —
thorns out of love for me.
I pick you as my King.
Mold my heart to be a worthy
member of your kingdom.
Amen.

Also, keep in mind that you can order scrip cards on line and from the app on your phone. This is a perfect way to reload, for example, the gas card you already purchased from the scrip program and have in your possession.

You can also email an e gift card or have the physical gift cards mailed to your home for a small fee. This is a great way for you to always have what you need.

Here is the website that you can search to determine if they have a card you would like to purchase:

Raiseright.com

If you have any questions regarding the scrip program please ask Kathy Cook 262-770-3934 or call the Parish Office 262-634-5647.

Step 1: Get your enrollment code

To sign up and tie your earnings to the correct fundraising program, you will be asked for your organization's unique enrollment code. If you don't have this, you can request it from your program's coordinator.

In addition to the enrollment code, you only need a few more details to sign up, including:

- First and last name
- Email address
- Phone number (for 2-step verification)

Step 2: Sign up online

1. Complete the quick sign-up form either on our website or mobile app

- Visit RaiseRight.com/enroll

2. Select "Join a Program"

3. Enter your organization's unique enrollment code to tie your earnings to your organization

4. Complete the fields to create your account

5. Enter and verify your phone number for 2-step verification (2-step verification protects your account if you forget your password or someone is using your account without your permission)

Congratulations! You've created your account.

Step 3: Set up online payment

There are 3 options to pay that may be available to you, based on how your organization has set up its program. Confirm accepted forms of payment with your coordinator if you have any questions or if you don't see an option available to you.

1. Pay online with your bank account

- From your Account page, choose Settings > Payment Options > Add Bank Account
- Follow the steps to automatically link your bank account
