THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

NOVEMBER 2, 2025 | 05

GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

Last week, I had the privilege of attending the National Conference for Vicars and Directors of Hispanic Ministry in the United States. This year was a special emotional event for all of us who serve our brothers and sisters in the Hispanic Community. Two hundred forty people from all over the country were participating in this event: bishops, priests, sisters, and laity. We were reflecting on walking together in hope, as pilgrims of hope in this jubilee year. Let me share some statistics about the makeup of our Catholic Church in the US. 46.5% of the members of the Catholic Church in the United States are Hispanics/Latinos. 26% of Catholics in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee are Hispanic/Latino. In our Catholic Community of Eight, out of the 3,200 people who come to Mass every weekend, 1,100 are Hispanics/Latinos. The Hispanic community is vibrant within our Catholic church and brings joy, devotion, and a great sense of community and family life to our Church.

Our conference focused on the joy of the Gospel and the hope that Our Lord Jesus Christ brings to all of us, his followers. It was great to see and hear about the growth and vibrancy that Hispanics bring to our Catholic Church. It was also heartbreaking to listen to the different stories of fear, anxiety, and suffering that many Hispanics are experiencing in our country at this time. I think it is clear to all of us that the narrative in social media is that "we, all Hispanics, are criminals and bad people". We all know better than that. And yet there I was sitting at the table with a priest who had to close the doors of his church and prolong his Mass because ICE was waiting in the parking lot to make a raid. These were faithful Catholic brothers and sisters of ours who were targeted just because they are Hispanics. It reminded me of the early church, when Roman soldiers would walk around the houses of known Christians when they celebrated the Eucharist to apprehend them for being Christians.

I got to spend time with a bishop, who was in tears, telling stories of suffering from his Hispanic parishioners, and how powerless he felt. These are somber times, marked by fear and anxiety in the hearts of so many brothers and sisters in Christ. I am not exempt from that fear and anxiety. Last week I had to go down to Chicago to renew my Colombian passport at the Colombian consulate, and I was dreading going there. I am blessed to have good friends who were very supportive and helped me through the process. I never thought that I would be afraid in this country. Growing up, this country was the dream country for anyone, and especially for those of us who grew up in places where war, violence, and kidnappings were on the news every day. This country seemed, at that time, a haven for all humanity. I can no longer say that. I am afraid of being stopped just because I am Hispanic. Imagine that I am scared, and I have all my documents in order and all my loved ones back in Colombia. Just imagine for a second those children of undocumented parents, who go to school in fear, thinking that maybe there will be no parents to pick them up after school. But what I loved the most about the conference was that, even though we live in a tragic time, there were no words of hatred or resentment; there were many prayers of hope and joy because Christ never disappoints, and we continue to journey in this land that the Lord brought us to.

This weekend, the words of the Gospel go like this: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me." These are the words our Lord Jesus Christ shares with us. We all hope and trust that the One who created us and redeemed us will receive us into his Kingdom. This is the prayer that we make this weekend for all our faithful departed. We pray for our loved ones who have gone to eternal rest and ask God's mercy and compassion on them. May their souls rest in peace.

Blessings,

Fr. Juan M. Camacho

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love. (Wis 3:9)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)
OR
Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

Second Reading:

But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. (Rom 5:8)

Gospel:

"For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day." (Jn 6:40)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

To live with Christ, we must die with him.
But what does this mean? What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian?
We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses, so that we may carry them into the newness of life.

Observances for the week of November 2, 2025

- Sunday: The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day);
Daylight Savings Time Ends
- Monday: St. Martin de Porres, Religious
- Tuesday: St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop; Election Day
- Next Sunday: The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Devotions, Explained!

God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity which exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer during Loss

O God,
In the midst of my grief, be with me.
Cover this season with Your comfort and consolation,
help me to know Your presence and Your grace.
Bring comfort to my affliction,
and hope to my heart.
Amen.

CHRISTMAS WISH TREE

Wishes from the 106 children in our Food Basket Program will be on a Christmas tree in the back of church at St. Joseph and by the side entrance at St. John Nepomuk starting next weekend, November 8/9, 2025.

Please help us, it's this easy...

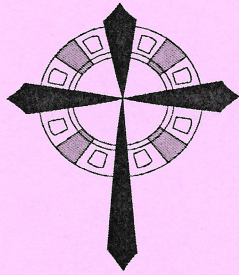

- Take an ornament tag (or two...)
- Purchase the gift(s)
- Wrap the gift(s)
- Securely attach the ornament tag on the outside of each gift.
- Return the wrapped gift(s) to church under the tree
- Deadline for gifts are:

Saturday, December 6- St. John Nepomuk

Sunday, December 7- St. Joseph

Thank you for your generosity
in helping these wishes come true!
